Convention Adopts No Resolutions, but Contents Itself with Endorsing the St. Louis Platform.

Hamilton Wilcox of Griswold, Cass fidate for congress. The nominee is president of the Bank of Griswold and one of the largest cattle raisers in southwestern Iowa. He is known as a sound money

The convention was presided over by Judge Ezra Willard of Atlantic, who was central committee and also chairman of the congressional committee, when he called the gathering to order, one hour after the appointed time. B. W. Gregory of Shelby county was named as temporary of her. secretary. The temporary organization was later made permanent.

When Judge Willard assumed the gavel there were only nineteen delegates present. convention got down to business by naming the following committees:

Credentials—L. L. Delano, Cass county; N. D. Hamlin, Audubon; C. P. Helland, Guthrie; W. J. Burke, Harrison; J. R. Gra-ham, Mills; William Boll, Montgomery; Roscoe Barton, Pottawattamie; O. P. Wy-land, Shelby. land, Sheiby.

When it came to the appointment of committee on resolutions, Roscoe Barton of Pottawattamie suggested that a commiftee be dispensed with and that the convention adopt as its platform the platform adopted by the national convention in St. Louis. His suggestion met with unanimous

The report of the committee was adopted and Mr. Nesselroad was compelled to take a seat among the spectators.

Then came the work of naming a candidate to make the race against Congressman Walter I. Smith. Hamilton Wilcox was placed in nomination by Charles F. Chase of Atlantic, editor of the Atlantic Democrat. Mr. Wilcox, the Cass county editor said, had learned his democracy when a youth in New York under Samuel J. Tilden, and had faithfully adhered to its principles ever since. The name of S. B. Wadsworth of Council Bluffs, who was nominated two years ago and defeated by Judge Smith, was brought before the convention by Roscoe Barton of the Pottawattamie delegation.

No other names were brought out an the first ballet gave the nomination to Wilcox by 40 votes to 35 for Wadsworth, On motion of L. L. Delano of Cass county the nination was declared unanimous. The ballot was as follows:

Wileox—Cass county, 9; Aububon, 6; Guth-rie, 7; Harrison, 7; Pottawattamie, 1; Shelby, 10. Total, 40. Wadsworth—Harrison county, 5; Mills, 8; Montgomery, 5; Pottawattamie, 19. Total 35. A committee consisting of Dr. Emmert, Roscoe Barton and Frank Tamisea was sent to escort the nominee before the convention. Mr. Wilcox said he ought to be thankful for a nomination for congress in the Ninth district, seeing that two years ago the republicans had a majority of 7,000. However, he said he appreciated the honor and as the party had placed the banner in his hands he would carry it as high as he could, although he could not carry it alone and would want every democrat in the nine counties to assist him. He thought

OMAHA GIRL'S DEATH CAUSES SUIT

M. H. Wheeler, Injured in Accident, Asks Damages from Fort Dodge. FORT : DODGE Sept: 1 .- (Special.)-Judge Whitaker of the district court is now engaged in hearing a case against the city of Fort Dodge for $20,000 damages for personal injuries sustained by one M. M. Wheeler on July 4, 1969, who was struck by Clara Rasmussen, a "slide for life" performer who met her death here on that date by the breaking of the harness which she wore. The case involves a question of liability m the part of the city for the accident and the injury of the plaintiff who was spectator. The best legal telent has been engaged by both sides and the case is being bitterly fought. One of the attractions on July 4, 1903, was a "slide for life" act. A strong wire was fastened to the top of the court house and run to a large telephone pole some 300 feet distant. The performer was an amateur and the proper harness for the act did not arrive in time to be used. A temporary one was constructed of web- in fallure to make use of the voting ma bing and preparations were made for the attraction. A crowd of people estimated at promise is reached. Injunctions and other several thousand were on hand to witness the thrilling and daring act. The performer was a beautiful young girl whose home was in Omaha. She had been engaged by the people with whom she travsled to do vaudeville work, but agreed to make the slide for the regular performer. She was given the start, but the pulley stuck and she complained that something was wrong. A hasty examination was ren, Harlan. The committee met after the made and everything pronounced all right. convention and selected L. L. Delano as She was given another start and had proceeded but a short distance when the har ness which supported her gave away and she was precipitated into the crowd below with fearful velocity. In her downward descent she struck M. M. Wheeler, who felled to the pavement and taken to the hospital, where his injuries, while very painful, did not prove serious. The girl was instantly killed and her manager and his wife served a sentence for criminal negligence. Mr. Wheeter now seeks to recover damages from the city on the grounds that it is liable. The of liability is conceded to be a close one and is creating wide interest. STORM DESTROYS CIRCUS TENTS

The circus and menagerie tents fell and gaso line lamps ignited the main tent, part of which was burned. Nobody was injured except five showmen who suffered light burns in extinguishing the fire. The management, fearing the storm, had refused admittance to several thousand people, hence the tents were empty except for em ployes. The cages were overturned, but the animals were also removed before the storm broke and thus in stumpeds was averted. The damage to the tents, etc., is cotimated at $8,000

The Woodmen of the World have ar-(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Sept. 1.- (Special.) - A neeting of the joint board of mine operators and coal miners in district No. 13 is being held in this city for the purpose of considering some of the recent labor $8.50 from Omaha, $8.25 from Council troubles in the mine district. The scale of wages was agreed to for the entire district last winter and it will continue two years. In case of disagreements the board will decide all matters. There are disagreements at three points in the district. At the Numma mine, near Oskaloosa, the miners were dissatisfied over the Wages and conditions and claim that in some slight particulars the operators have not lived up to the agreements. They ail quit in a body. No strike was ordered and the local miners' organization disclaims any responsibility, but the men quit as individuals. The mine was shut down, At born and raised in Council Bluffs and is Mendota, Mo., there was a misunderstanding as to the screens and it was submitted to arbitration, but the operator declars the miners have not acquiecced. At Colfax 500 miners stopped work in mines at Seavers Colfax Northern an arrangement has been made by which the miners are required to pay for transportation to the mines. The coal road formerly carried the men free owned by the persons who owned the coal mines and runs from Colfax out to the mines. This matter is subject to arbitration here. The conference is not yet concluded.

Bank Interest to Iowa The state treasurer today figured up the interest due the state of Iowa from Des Moines banks for the month of August and found that it amounted to $2,194.21. This is less than the previous month. The balance in Des Moines banks to the credit of the state was $1,210,000 for the month. It is expected the balance will steadily decrease until about the middle of October, when it will begin to increase again. The new law requiring banks to pay the state interest on balances held will yield the state about $25,000 a year.

There are several Iowa companies doing business

Consummate a Merger. The Des Moines plant of the Continental Biscuit company in this city was taken over today by the National Biscuit company of New York, and thus ends a long fight here between rival trusts. It is stated hat the same change was made as to the plant at Cedar Rapids which has been owned by the Continental. The old managers are retained by the new owners. Similar changes are expected wherever the Continental has maintained factories, For Menstrual Suppression from Demurrage on State Coal. Attorney General Mullan has given the State Board of Control an opinion in which he holds that the railroads cannot collect demurrage charges on coal and other shipments to state institutions by seizure of the material shipped, as is done in the case of private property. Other methods of collecting must be used. But he points out that the only question in regard to demarrage charges, the legality of which have long been upheld by the courts, is the reasonableness of the charge and the method or applying.

No Voting Machines. The litigation over the purchase of voting machines by this county will result chines at the coming election unless a comprocesses were secured and the voting machine company is so tied up that it will do nothing toward delivering the machines. This is regarded as certain to end in nondelivery in time to fulfill the con tract and then the county will refuse to urchase machines at all. Fifty machines had been purchased, but the makers of rival machines declared those purchased were not good.
